Louis Napoleon Consults the Great Powers.

What! France takes Savoy? The Emperor's! The French are at war with us! Not to my pretensions—

(over the telephone) I am not fit to eat tea!

I should try "coffee" instead.

If I am to go to France, I will go to Paris.

Please themselves, death our Empire's protection.

N. B.—I may change my mind.

Should it be my intention, to take any such step, I will let you know.

It is now time for Imperial decisions.
